

2023 Mission Trip Application

Cancun, MX

March 25-31, 2023

What to Expect:

The Atlanta Christian Church will be sending a mission team to Cancun, Mexico. During this 7 day trip, the team will be serving alongside Dan & Christi Ucherek, missionaries with Back2Back Ministries, doing community outreach projects for impoverished and at-risk kids and their families. The team will also be serving at community centers; helping kids with child enrichment programs designed specifically for their needs. The cost of the trip is $845 (includes all meals, lodging and transportation while in MX) plus airfare, which we anticipate being around $600.

If you are interested in joining this trip, please review the policies, procedures and considerations, then fill out the below application questions. All applications must be submitted by Sept. 20th along with a $100 trip deposit. Checks made payable to: Atlanta Christian Church with name and Cancun trip on the memo line.

Mission Trip Policies, Procedures and Considerations:

1. The missions committee will review your application. A personal interview with the committee may be required.
2. Children under 18 must have parent/guardian consent.
3. Once approved by the missions committee, team members are expected to attend all team meetings.
4. It is each persons responsibility to raise their own financial support. Fund raising ideas will be discussed at our first meeting.
5. Each team member will need a valid passport to travel.
